This is how you can present you Microproject Creatively

Hello I am Ronak

As this page (berony) is the initiative from the student who is currently java full stack and angular 18 as front end framework with typescript .

And welcome to my Story , I have done a angular project where i used for now a json as a database where i can post,read and update my stories any time and any where.

This Page provides me a lot of exposure to the new minds in the world and the creative person i can collaborate and work more efficiently.

HAPPY LEARNING

DISCUSSION

The Daily Grind

I'm not arguing, I'm just explaining why I'm right. There's a difference

Blogzilla

I'm not a morning person, I'm not a night person, I'm a 'whenever the coffee kicks in' person
